

INTERIOR DESIGN®

OCTOBER 31
2016

eye-catching

fall market tabloid

mauro lipparini

for Casa International
product Belfiore

standout Who needs a bed when a chair is this comfy? Sink into the embracing hug of the fiberglass shell, topped by non-deformable polyurethane and a quilted cotton cover filled with natural goose down. Feet are painted metal with brass tips. casaintl.com. circle 299

claesson koivisto rune

for Arflex
product Bonsai

standout Cloudlike seats boasting full, simple curves are inspired by bonsai. Some perch on slender metal legs, others on a wengé or oak platform that serves as an integrated coffee table that can be topped with a recessed stone or mirror plate or even a tall reading lamp. Through Property, propertyfurniture.com. circle 300

sol & luna

at Blackbarn Shop

product Poty chair and Kids stool standout Hand-stitched Paraguayan leather forms the basis of two pieces designed and manufactured by Spanish company Sol & Luna, sold at Blackbarn Shop—New York designer Mark Zeff's latest venture, a retail store filled with global finds inspired by his own earthy-minimalist East Hampton farmhouse-style dwelling. blackbarnshop.com. circle 301 ➔

